TRIVIA Question

Who was the only bowler to win two PBA titles at Leilani Lanes during its 12 year run at the Greenwood area house?

Inaugural Edition of STE Bowling News

Welcome to the first edition of the STE BOWLING NEWS. It has been almost a year since some of our area has had a bowling paper, so I am taking this edition to get caught up with what has happened this year. We plan to come out with an edition every two months, so send us your articles, scores and highlights, and we will do our best to put them in the newsletter. Our goal is to inform the tournament, league and open play bowler to what is going on in our area. Our success depends on you, so I need your input. Our e-mail and phone number can be found on page 2. Thanks and keep up the good bowling.

Kelly Inducted into GSBA Hall-of-Fame

It wasn't because he was an all-star coming out of junior leagues. It wasn't because of his 5 NWBA victories and 5 regional PBA victories.

It wasn't because he was the Lane Man for the PBA tour or manager of Kenmore Lanes in the 80's. Or his tutelage of young bowlers coming out of junior leagues.

For Seattle's Mike Kelly to make the GSBA Hall-of-Fame it was the sum of all those parts. And there are few bowlers in our association with as storied of a past as Mike.

On October 28, the GSBA presented Mike with the 2006 Hall-of-Fame Award. The ceremony was held at the Old-Timers Dinner at the Ballard Elks.

The evening started out with a sumptuous buffet and then door prizes were handed out to the crowd of 110.

At this point Emcee and Association Manager Jan Welch handed over the microphone to Kelly's good friend Jim Clark. After a few stories and anecdotes from Jim, a tearful Mike came to the stage before a standing ovation from the crowd. A couple of "long over- dues" were heard from the near capacity crowd.

The Old-Timers dinner this year was dedicated to the memory of Marge Davidson who passed away earlier in the year. Marge was the heart and soul of this dinner for many years and her spirit was definitely felt by all who attended.

Pin Scatters

It has been nine months since Leilani Lanes closed its doors and it still sits there. Seems to me, we could be still having fun in there.

An article in the Seattle Times about Vanishing Seattle mentioned Leilani lanes, but the only thing they could say about it was that it was pure Kitsch. No mention that a sport was going on in that building. If one of the city's golf courses was bought up by a developer, there surely would be lots of moaning about how many rounds of golf that were played there.

Pete Ekonamakris, long time ball driller and jack-o-all trades at Leilani has surfaced at West Seattle Bowl.

Lynnwood Lanes did an extensive remodel last summer and you can now see the Roller Skating going on next door from the bowling center. A sound proof party room is also a new feature. If you haven't been there in a long time, check out the new Lynnwood Lanes.

I heard it through the grapevine that Everett's Jim Holmer won the progressive strikepot at Glacier lanes for $1800. Nice hit Jim!

Davidson Wins 2007 SEATTLE MASTERS at Roxbury Lanes

In wire to wire fashion Mountlake Terrace's Bob Davidson won the 2007 Seattle Masters at Roxbury Lanes Jan. 6-7. In a dominating performance, Bobby averaged 251 on the opening day of qualifying, and never looked back. He defeated Scott Halvarson in the championship match of the stepladder finals 267-178.

Bob Davidson - 1st Place

Fifty eight bowlers started the eight game block on Saturday with scores being a little on the high side, but as each game went on, the scoring leveled off. It took a cut score of +23 to make the qualifying finals on Sunday.

The first day's highlights included a 300 game by Jason Williams and a 295 shot by Hugh Miller. Miller left the Greek Church on the final ball in the 10th.

Twenty bowlers came back on Sunday for a 5 game qualifying block with Pat Johns making a run to set himself up for the eight game semi-final round.

A star studded field was set for the match play round that included multiple PBA regional winners Bob Davidson, Jason Williams, Hugh Miller and Mitch Beasley. Defending champ Frank DeRemer was also in the mix.

Throughout the match play round, there was no doubt who the leader was going to be, as Davidson just ran away from the rest of the field.

What was in doubt was the 5th spot in the step-ladder final. In a very exciting position round, Frank DeRemer closed the door on Jason Williams and Paul Hash by striking in the first two frames in the tenth. Hash settled for 6th and Williams ended up 7th.

In the stepladder final, Game One saw Scott Halvarson cruise to victory against Frank DeRemer 202-187. In game two, Pat Johns had a shot to beat Halvarson in the tenth, but left a ringing 10 pin to lose 225-212.

Scott then opened up the semi-final match with a spare and a six bagger against Mercer Island's Hugh Miller. Miller left three 7 pins during the semi-final and could never head Halvarson, with the score being 239-225. Miller settled for 3rd place and a hand-some $500 paycheck.

Davidson started warming up on the championship pair. Halvarson, who won three straight matches, was asking the small but energetic crowd if he could forfeit. He probably should have, as Davidson never had any trouble, beating Halvarson 267-178.

Halvarson had a tremendous tournament and won $800 for finishing 2nd. For Davidson, it had been almost 18 years since he won his first Seattle Masters. It was a big payday for Bobby D. as he won $1400 for first place, $280 in the monster bracket and over $1000 in regular bracket money.

Scott Halvarson - 2nd Place

Hugh Miller - 3rd Place

Pat Johns - 4th Place

Frank DeRemer - 5th Place

"I don't know why people don't bowl good against me in the finals" remarked Davidson, "but I like it." Maybe its like an old class race horse just looking in the eye of his rival and saying there is no way you can beat me. And like that classy thoroughbred, Davidson once again is in the winners circle.

Upcoming events:

The South Sound USBC will be hosting the annual Open and Women's Association tournaments in January. We are trying something new this year as we are having both tournaments at Paradise Lanes in Tacoma at the same time. The dates will be January 20,21,27 and 28. We encourage everyone to get their entries in early as some squads will fill up with having both tournaments in the same location. Also we would like to welcome Venture Bank as sponsor this year for our events and thank them for their contribution to the tournaments.
